Giving Eternal Life

Eternal life. It has come! The Father has given authority to Jesus to give eternal life!!!

Jesus prays for his disciples then and now. We are not left out. And he just keeps on giving. He is extravagant in his giving. Jesus is letting us know that we belong and that we belong to Him. We are given God's name. If we belong then we need to know God and call on him. Also, we are given the word and protected in the name. Now we need to receive that joy. And lastly he sends us out into the world.

Today is Mothers' Day

We give thanks for our mothers and we pray for all those who have nurtured us in our life.

Church Missionary Society

Since the Church Missionary Society's beginnings in 1799, God has been at work through men and women with courage and vision, who grasped opportunities to make the gospel known around the world. The Church Missionary Society (CMS-UK) was founded in England by a small group of Anglican evangelicals with a passion for worldwide gospel outreach. They included John Newton, who wrote Amazing Grace, and William Wilberforce, who was a leader in abolishing the slave trade in England.
